Tutoring Experience

Throughout my 17-year teaching career, I’ve worked with students from various international backgrounds, helping them achieve top grades in their IB and A-Level exams. My tutoring focuses on building a deep understanding of core mathematical concepts, allowing students to excel in both coursework and final exams.

In addition to IB and A-Level, I’ve guided students through IGCSE and AP Maths, helping them navigate complex topics such as calculus, trigonometry, and statistics. Many of my students have successfully progressed to prestigious universities, reflecting the effectiveness of my tailored tutoring approach.
